

Join the largest network of landlords committed to partnering with tenants to shape services

Exceed the regulatory standards with Tpas

SHARING

As a member you will benefit from our professional advice, support and guidance.

We offer you access to strategic, practical, and relevant information, tools, ideas and good practice to keep you fully informed about engagement.

Our resource hub and e-book collection grows every week and the most relevant content is shared straight to your inbox every fortnight.

NETWORKING

The Tpas membership network consists of people and organisations just like you.

Our network is made up of tenants and landlords working together.

Tpas facilitate events, digital networking forums, Zoom meetups, polls, surveys, and more to create discussions and share learning across our networks.

LEARNING

Tpas members re-join year on year to improve their housing knowledge, fine tune engagement skills and understanding the latest policy proposals.

The Tpas membership offers you access to new knowledge to grow your skills and innovate your engagement activities.

Tpas members access webinars throughout the year and all are available 'on demand' in our dedicated resource hub.

INFLUENCING

Tpas proudly and proactively build strong relationships with organisations that shape the engagement agenda to champion the power of tenant and landlord partnership working.

Tpas members' views and experiences are regularly represented at government level to shape the latest policy proposals and consultations affecting the tenant voice.
